NOTES:

Meet Animal Style, a friendly and outgoing girl who believes every stranger is just a friend she hasn't met yet. She loves meeting new people and greets the world with enthusiasm, curiosity, and a wagging tail. Like many young dogs, Animal Style is still learning her manners and is working hard on finding the best ways to say hello. Right now, she sometimes likes to greet people with her mouth, so she'll benefit from a family committed to continuing her training and helping her develop appropriate social skills. Fortunately, she's eager to engage and has all the ingredients needed to become a wonderful companion. If you're looking for a fun-loving dog with a big personality and lots of potential, Animal Style is ready to bring a little extra flavor to your life.
