NOTES:

Meet Crocodile Frog, the tiniest "cryptid" you'll ever meet, mysterious at first glance, but sweet and loving once she warms up. This shy little bulldog is looking for a calm, devoted family who can help her feel safe as she slowly emerges from her shell. With patience and gentle guidance, she'll transform from elusive creature to loyal cuddle buddy. If you would like to learn more about her, come chat with an adoption counselor today!

HERE ARE A FEW OF MY FAVORITE THINGS:
