(Again) Rancho Coastal Humane Society Earns Perfect “Charity Navigator” Score

Encinitas, CA -- For the 7th year in a row your Rancho Coastal Humane Society in Encinitas, CA has earned Charity Navigator’s highest 4 star rating. This is also the second year in a row when RCHS earned a score of 100.00, making it one of only four working animal shelters in the United States with a perfect score.

Charity Navigator is an independent American nonprofit corporation that evaluates charities in the United States. This second straight year with a perfect score of 100.00 continues a trend that RCHS began several years ago.

- During the year ending June 2017 RCHS earned an overall score of 99.97
- In the year before ending June 2016 RCHS earned 99.93.
- During the year ending June 2015 RCHS earned 99.83 points

Only four working animal shelters in the United States earned scores of 100.00.

The other three are located in San Luis Obispo, CA, Sarasota County, FL, and Westchester, NY.

Charity Navigator currently rates 3,620 charities including 547 Animal-related charities of which 369 are designated Animal Rights, Welfare, and Services.

Charity Navigator addressed Rancho Coastal Humane Society’s impact on the community.

GuideStar, Charity Navigator’s partner in sharing information, has recognized Rancho Coastal Humane Society with a Platinum Seal of Transparency. RCHS has earned a GuideStar’s Platinum Seal of Transparency by voluntarily sharing the measures of progress and results they use to pursue their mission.

GuideStar is the world’s leading source of information about nonprofit organizations. A nonprofit itself, GuideStar is dedicated to providing better data for better decisions for a better world.

RCHS President Judi Sanzo points out, “Charity Navigator and GuidedStar reassure donors that Rancho Coastal Humane Society is deserving of their support. At Rancho Coastal Humane Society we believe Every Animal Deserves a Tomorrow. ®
