

We'll never break our arms patting ourselves on the backs....but....

At your Rancho Coastal Humane Society "Thanks" comes in many forms. The tray of muffins that magically shows up in the staff room. The case of cat food that is donated just in time for the Community Pet Food Bank to deliver it to struggling seniors and veterans. .

Much of the Thanks we get comes in the form of wagging tails and gentle purrs. Imagine our surprise when animal lovers Mike and Lori Conger invited your Rancho Coastal Humane Society to an event they were holding in our honor!

"Celebrate 100 with Us" was held on Wednesday evening, February 26 at Lori and Mike's home in Rancho Santa Fe. Lori and the Host Committee created "Celebrate 100" in honor of your Rancho Coastal Humane Society earning a perfect score of 100 points on Charity Navigator. This makes RCHS one of only five working animal shelters in the United States to earn a perfect score. https://www.charitynavigator.org/index.cfm?keyword_list=rancho+coastal+humane+society&bay=search.results

Little did any of us know that Celebrate 100 would bring an extra surprise. Just two days before the event we learned that Rancho Coastal Humane Society had earned Platinum status on Guidestar! https://www.charitynavigator.org/index.cfm?keyword_list=rancho+coastal+humane+society&bay=search.results

While we might remind you once in a while that's we're doing good things for people and pets, it means so much more when others tell our story.

- Charity Navigator.
- Guidestar.
- And Now Mike and Lori Conger and the members of the Celebrate 100 Committee.

Please check us out. Compare your Rancho Coastal Humane Society to other animal shelters across the country.

If you haven't been here lately, please come for a visit. Talk to our volunteers. Talk to our staff. Schedule time to sit with RCHS President Judi Sanzo.

You'll see that your Rancho Coastal Humane Society remains a place where Every Animal Deserves a Tomorrow. ®
