NOTES:

Meet Nita, a gentle girl who would thrive in a quieter home where she can feel safe and at ease. She can be sensitive to loud noises and fast movements, so a calm environment will help her settle in more comfortably. With a little structure and patience in the beginning, Nita will gradually build confidence and show her sweet nature. If you're looking for a soft, steady companion and are happy to let the bond grow at her pace, Nita could be a wonderful fit.
