Peanut Butter

Peanut Butter is pet of the week at your Rancho Coastal Humane Society. He's a 5-1/2 year old, 12 pound, male, Domestic Short Hair cat with a Brown and White Tabby coat.

Peanut Butter has been bounced around. Now he's ready for someplace to stick. His family surrendered him to a shelter when they moved. They said he gets along great with young kids, dogs, and other cats. He was transferred to Rancho Coastal Humane Society through the Friends of County Animal Shelters (FOCAS) program then adopted. After 6 months in his new home, he was returned. He had a traumatic visit to the veterinarian. After that he began hiding from his human family members. Now Peanut Butter is gaining confidence every day. He's ready for a new home where he can sit back, put up his paws, and settle in.

The $100 adoption fee for Peanut Butter includes medical exams, vaccinations, neuter, and registered microchip. For more information call 760-753-6413, visit Rancho Coastal Humane Society at 389 Requeza Street in Encinitas, or log on to SDpets.org. Kennels and cattery open 11 AM to 5 PM every day but Tuesday.
