NOTES:

Meet Petunia, a gentle flower of a husky who's just waiting for the right home to help her blossom. She can be a little reserved at first, but once she feels safe, her sweet and snuggly side begins to shine. Petunia will do best with a patient family willing to move at her pace and give her the time she needs to build confidence. With a little care and understanding, this soft-hearted girl is ready to grow into a loving and devoted companion.
