NOTES:

Meet Sloth Bear, a friendly girl with a big heart and an even bigger love for people. She has no trouble making human friends and is always happy to be part of the action. Sloth Bear is currently on a weight-loss journey and would love a family committed to helping her stay active, healthy, and feeling her best. More than anything, she's hoping to find a home ready to make a long-term commitment so she can finally settle in and feel secure. If you're looking for a loving, social companion to share your life with, Sloth Bear is ready to meet you.
