NOTES:

Smoky Quartz is a sweet bunny who is ready to leave her past behind and begin a new chapter in a loving home. Rescued from a hoarding situation, she is still settling into the shelter environment and, like many rabbits, finds new surroundings and changes in routine a little overwhelming. She will do best with a patient family that can provide structure, consistency, and a calm environment while she adjusts at her own pace. Giving Smoky Quartz the time to decompress and build confidence will help her feel safe and allow her personality to shine. If you're ready to offer a deserving rabbit the second chance she's been waiting for, Smoky Quartz is ready to meet you.
