NOTES:

Meet Tini, a petite and sensitive girl who just needs a little time to feel safe. She can be nervous at first, but once she settles in, she has plenty of love and playful energy to share. Tini finds the presence of other animals overwhelming and will do best as the only pet in the home, where she can relax and truly come into her own. She's looking for a patient and devoted adopter who can support her through her decompression and help her transition out of the shelter environment. With time and understanding, Tini is sure to blossom into a loving and rewarding companion.
