Notes:

Meet Hunter, a brave little explorer on the prowl for a special family to call his own. Hunter has some special needs as he has a visual impairment, a heart murmur, and a heart arrhythmia; if you have any questions about his medical care our team would be happy to assist you. While he might need some extra love and care as he grows, Hunter's adventurous spirit and snuggle game are truly top-notch. If you're ready for a special companion with a special love, Hunter is your guy!
