Notes:

Is your heart ready for some lunar love? Moon's got all the snuggles you need! This exceptionally sweet kitty girl is mellow, loves to be brushed and snuggled up in a cozy spot. Moon was recently diagnosed with diabetes and is a very good girl when it is time for her treatments, she will need a dedicated adopter who is home more often to provide her necessary care. If you are interested in learning more about this wonderful girl, chat with an adoption counselor today.
